

Become a member of the SWG Board and watch your popularity soar!

Well... at least watch your leadership, networking, strategic direction, and decision-making skills grow.

MUST-HAVES

- AN INTEREST IN WRITING
- AN SWG MEMBERSHIP
- A DESIRE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE
- COMMUNICATION SKILLS

COMMITMENT

- MEET 6-7 TIMES A YEAR
- TWO-YEAR TERM FOR DIRECTORS
- ONE-YEAR TERM FOR PRESIDENT

BENEFITS

- EXPAND YOUR NETWORK
- CAREER ADVANCEMENT
- PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
- TRAVEL/PER DIEM TO MEETINGS

RESPONSIBILITIES

- SET STRATEGY AND VISION
- DEVELOP POLICIES
- FINANCE AND BUDGET GOVERNANCE
- COMMITTEE WORK

Bring your professional skills* and desire to learn to your new role as a Saskatchewan Writers' Guild board member, and watch how quickly you make a difference in this popular and creative, not-for-profit organization.

* Accounting, Auditing, Communications, Finance, Governance, Legal, Marketing, Policy Development, Strategy, Planning, Risk, Industry Experience...

“Representing the SWG at SaskCulture workshops and events like the Festival of Words were fun opportunities to learn and make connections within both the not-for-profit and writing communities.”

Jason Heit, Former SWG Board Member and Author of Kaidenberg's Best Sons

If you are interested in learning more about becoming a board member or about the Saskatchewan Writers' Guild, please visit skwriter.com/about