A) Narrative Report

In 250 words or less, please explain your group's activities and any notable successes or challenges for 2021-2022:

This year, our group met once a month and workshopped each other's work via Zoom. We were successful this year in that we were able to bring in an author to give a talk on world building, a topic that our group has wanted to bring someone in to talk about for quite some time. The challenges this year were the inability to meet in person due to the pandemic and having to use our funding for a zoom licenced account.

B) Group Membership

Has there been any changes in your group's membership or information? Yes No

Changes in membership can mean new members or members who have left. The SWG needs these numbers for our reports to our funders.

If Yes, please explain (e.g. list the names of new members or departed members):

3 members left, leaving us with 8 members left.

Names of departed members: Jack Frost, Virginia Walldorf, Vanessa Lodge

Please indicate how many of your members are:

Youth (0-29 yrs old): 2

Adults (30-54 yrs old): 5

Seniors (55+ yrs old): 1

How many people have been reached by your activities? Please consider or list any activities, initiatives, or events your group hosted and estimate an audience number based on these activities. Consider how many writers in your group were involved as well as any outside audience members. If, for example, your group only meet to critique each other's work, you may put down the number of members that show up to these meetings as "audience" members.

9 people have been reached by our activities this year. Due to the pandemic, we were unable to do any public readings for our community. 8 are our members and one is the writer we brought in to do a talk.

C) Financial Report for 2021-2022

Please note that groups must only report on SWG received funding in this report. In your financial report please include any invoices, copies of cheque or e-transfer details, receipts, contracts (if you hire a writer to bring in to talk with your writing group), and/or bank statements.

Expenses and revenue MUST be equal to each other.

Please note that any unused funds above $50.00 must be returned to the SWG with this follow-up report by June 28, 2022. Groups are not entitled to purposefully hold back $50.00 each year. For any unspent funds $50.00 or under, please indicate how much is left over of your SWG funding and your intended use for it. If you use all your funding, please put $0.00 in the “unspent funds” column. The SWG encourages writing groups to spend their full funding amount.

A) Narrative Report

In 250 words or less, please explain your group's activities and any notable successes or challenges for 2020-2021:

With funds received from the SWG, members of A Morning's Cup of Tea were able to take a weeklong writing course directed by Guest Writer. During this virtual workshop series, our members went for a weekend writing retreat at XXX. It was a great way to connect with each other as well as our new members. The group did a virtual reading of new work and posted the video to the group's YouTube page.

The group is planning an in-person reading for the Fall, but may push it to next summer as two members have new books coming out!

Thanks to the SWG for funding our weekend retreat and zoom account fee.
